

I am writing in response to the fact that LPFM might be expanding into my area and that the translators in and around Denver would be eliminated. I listen to K-Love and believe it is a positive influence on my community by advertising non-profit events and by being an encouraging presence in a sometimes discouraging world.